Stewards Notes – 2/28/18

New members filling positions – Angelo Licota will be filling the 2nd shift safety committee position for the retiring Augie Gilardi. Matt Sellet will replace Paul Cooper as a member of the bargaining committee.

Help for Heroes – Glen Carpenter is continuing to work to help a young Marine and his family after the veteran fell off their roof. Within the next weeks, Help for Heroes will hold a raffle for an American Flag-themed Cerakoted rifle. The drawing will be at the May monthly meeting. More details coming soon.

NFPA 70E safety position – A big thank you goes out to Brother Tony Elfers, who has stepped up to take the 70E job.

Today's retirements – There will continue to be people backing out of retirement today, so there may be more movement throughout the day. Please be sure to say your goodbyes to our union brothers and sisters and wish them well on their future.

Retiree Party for Paul Cooper, Augie Gilardi, and Greg Hensley – There is a retirement celebration for three IAM members who have provided great service to Lodge 912. It will be held this Friday, March 2 from 2-4 PM at the Cock and Bull Pub on East Sharon Road in Glendale. Please join us this Friday!

Split-The-Pot – Matt Sellet won this week's Split-The-Pot, and donated his winnings to the Help for Heroes.
