Stewards Notes – 10/31/18

IAM Contract Surveys – If you have not turned in your survey regarding the upcoming contract, please do so today and return it to your steward.

Nominations – If you intend to run for an IAM 912 office this year, be sure to get with Recording Secretary Justin Chandler. Brother Chandler will help you get cards, pencils, etc. printed in time for the elections.

Annual Enrollment – Enrollment period ends this Friday, November 2. You must reset your flexible spending and record your personal time carryover requests at this time. You can do it online or call (800)252-5259.

Voting Information – Remember that Tuesday, November 6 is election day. Educate yourself on candidates and issues before stepping into the voting booth. The League of Women Voters often provides a good unbiased guide – <http://www.lwvcincinnati.org/>.

Flu Shots – Now through November 7, flu shots are being administered around campus. See the separate posting for more info.

Workplace Injuries – Be sure to report your injuries to the medical center, even if you don't receive any treatment. Fill out an IAM accident report and get help from your steward or member of the safety committee. If you have questions or problems, just ask.

Holidays for Heroes Gun Raffle – is starting this week. Details coming soon.

Split-The-Pot – Matt Sellet won this week's Split-The-Pot, and he gave his winnings to Holidays for Heroes.
