Stewards Notes – 2/7/18

Workmans Comp – There are three new cases that are being addressed this week. The Workman's Comp committee would like to thank the membership for sending them to school in March, where they will learn to better serve our members. In return, we thank them for their hard work.

Holidays for Heroes – Holidays for Heroes has donated money to a young Marine family in the area after the 6-year vet fell off their roof. They did not have insurance. Brother Glen Carpenter is working on a gun raffle that will raise more funds for this family. More details are coming soon.

3rd Step and Toolroom meetings – Meetings are scheduled tomorrow where our bargaining committee will continue to negotiate with the company.

Electrical Maintenance and 71E safety position – Steve Sanders is still looking to step down from this role. If you have any interest, please contact your steward or committee person.

Corporate EHS – Representatives from GE's corporate EHS are here this week for a governance audit.

V-Rip Lists – V-Rip lists are supposed to be released this week.

Split-The-Pot – John Pomfrey won this week's Split-The-Pot, and donated his winnings to the American Heart Association.
