Stewards Notes – 7/9/19

Local Contract Negotiations – Our LL912 Bargaining Committee has learned new information and are now back at the table in Evendale. Some issues that were said to be non-negotiable at a local level have been negotiated at other sites, causing this new activity.

July Meeting Today – While most of our bargaining committee will be in negotiations today, we will still be holding our monthly meeting today at 1:00 and 3:30 PM. In addition, there will be a retiree meeting between them. Please come and get the latest updates on questions you may have.

Contract Ratification Recommendation – Both the IAM on the national and local level are STRONGLY RECOMMENDING TO NOT RATIFY this proposal, no matter what the outcome of the IUE vote. Local bargaining has opened again, and we now believe that there is much room for improvements from local company union relations representatives.

No Split-The-Pot Today – If there were, I'm sure Mark Koch would've been favored to win.
